

Interested in learning how you can help your child succeed in CCSD schools and beyond?
Come gain exciting skills and learn about helpful resources through Charleston County School District's

Parent University is a series of courses that is:

Important!

Parent University is designed to support families by equipping parents with the knowledge and tools their children need to thrive in CCSD schools and in life!

Free!

There is no cost to enroll or attend. The courses are provided through the collaboration with community agencies and partners. A Children's Program (with free daycare, a provided lunch, and meaningful learning activities) is available for four-year-old to fifth grade children during each session.

Convenient!

All courses are held in the centrally located Burke High School. Registration is open to all families who have or will have children in Charleston County public schools. Courses are held once a month on Saturdays, and you do not have to attend every session. To register at any point during the year, please pick up an application at your local public school or go online to www.ccsdschools.com.
